Vicar's Letter For November

By Rev Derek Newton

It was 30 years ago this month, on 9th November 1989 that the fall of the Berlin Wall began. Over two million people from East Berlin visited the West in a celebration described as 'the greatest street party in the history of the world.' However, we are still living with walls, thinking of those dividing Gaza and Palestine from Israel. Also the proposed wall between the USA and Mexico. It's a strong human instinct to build walls to separate us from those we view as different and threatening in so many ways.

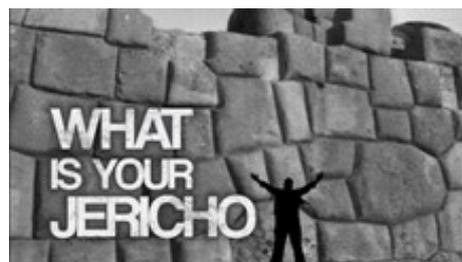

We as human beings build walls around us emotionally and physically. St Paul writes of how the death of Jesus has broken down the barrier between Jew and Gentile: 'His purpose was to create in Himself one new humanity out of the two, thus making peace, and in one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which He put to death their hostility.' (Ephesians 2:15-16).

Jesus is still in the business in breaking down the barriers between people of different gender, age, race and language, to bring them together in His church: 'There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.' (Galatians 3:28).

We can easily put up barriers with others, when we make assumptions about them, forgetting that they may be thinking the same things about us. We may want to avoid making ourselves vulnerable or appear needy. Yet Jesus can break down our defences and enable us to live openly and honestly with others. As His church, He invites us to be a community of risk takers, i.e. those who trust each other, handle our weaknesses and fears, and who encourage one another's strengths and gifts. Jesus was vulnerable but also powerful in his faith and at one with the Father. The gospels reveal his weakness in loving others of all nations and his strengths in daring to challenge what was wrong within the establishment of that time.

Today we as Christians must like Jesus face the challenges ahead in our lives with openness and love. It is the only way to find that peace which only Jesus can bring to us all. Like the walls of Jericho we must let God break them down that we may be free. 'When the trumpets sounded, the army shouted, and at the sound of the trumpet, when the men gave a loud shout, the wall collapsed.' (Joshua 6 v 20a).

Therefore we must reflect on the words of Pope Francis. 'A person who thinks only about building walls, where ever they may be, and not building bridges, is not Christian.'

Ketchup

A woman was trying hard to get the ketchup to come out of the bottle. During her struggle the phone rang so she asked her four-year old daughter to answer it. "It's the minister, Mum," the child said to her mother. Then she told her caller: "Mummy can't come to the phone right now. She's hitting the bottle."

Bill's Gardening Tips~ November

Another colourful month and with winter approaching, a good time for a tidy up. Remove fallen leaves which can harbour fungal spores and pests.

Lift and divide overcrowded perennials, cut back those which are spent.

Lift and store begonia and dahlia tubers.

Clean and disinfect greenhouses.

Fleece half hardy plants or bring into the greenhouse.

Clear fallen leaves from lawns to allow light to the grass.

Aerate the lawn with a fork to prevent waterlogging and compaction.

Prune climbing and rambling roses.

Clear fallen rose leaves to avoid black spot overwintering.

Clear overhanging plants from pathways; power wash moss from pathways to avoid slips.

Tidy up borders and mulch (spent compost from containers is useful).

A final mowing can be made before leaving for winter.

Give evergreen hedges a final trim before bad weather sets in.

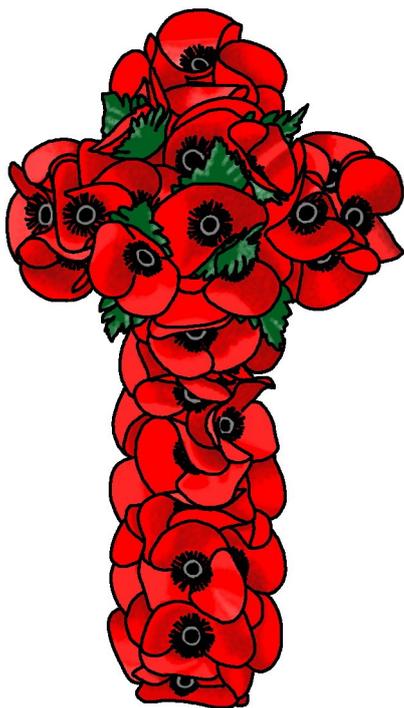

Prevent frost damage to outdoor water features by emptying and protecting with bubble wrap and fleece, or bring indoors.

Set up bird baths and feeders.

Cheers

Bill

The History of 'Aprons'

By Tina Charlene

I don't think our kids know what an apron is. The principal use of Grandma's apron was to protect the dress underneath because she only had a few. It was also because it was easier to wash aprons than dresses and aprons used less material. But along with that, it served as a potholder for removing hot pans from the oven.

It was wonderful for drying children's tears, and on occasion was even used for cleaning out dirty ears.

From the chicken coop, the apron was used for carrying eggs, fussy chicks, and sometimes half-hatched eggs to be finished in the warming oven. When company came, those aprons were ideal hiding places for shy kids. And when the weather was cold, Grandma wrapped it around her arms. Those big old aprons wiped many a perspiring brow, bent over the hot wood stove.

Sticks and kindling wood were brought into the kitchen in that apron. From the garden, it carried all sorts of vegetables. After the peas had been shelled, it carried out the hulls.

In the Autumn, the apron was used to bring in apples that had fallen from the trees. When unexpected company drove up the road, it was surprising how much furniture that old apron could dust in a matter of seconds. When dinner was ready, Grandma walked out, waved her apron, and everyone knew it was time to come in for dinner.

It will be a long time before someone invents something that will replace that 'old-time apron' that served so many purposes. Send this to those who would know (and love) the story about Grandma's aprons.

Remember:

Grandma used to put her hot baked apple pies on the window sill to cool. Her granddaughters put theirs on the window sill to thaw. They would go crazy now trying to figure out how many germs were on that apron. I don't think I ever caught anything from an apron - but love.

How Armistice Day Began, 100 Years Ago

It was 100 years ago, on 11th November 1918, that the first Armistice Day (now Remembrance Day) was marked in the UK. King George V had issued a proclamation calling for a two-minute silence at 11:00am to remember the members of the armed forces who lost their lives in the line of duty.

The two-minute silence was in fact adopted from a South African idea that had spread from Cape Town through the Commonwealth in 1919. The first minute was dedicated to those who died in the war, and the second to those left behind – families affected by bereavement and other effects of the conflict.

The Cenotaph was erected temporarily in Whitehall for a peace parade for Armistice Day in 1920. After a tremendous nationwide response, it became a permanent structure, and in the following years war memorials were created in other British towns and cities.

In 1939, the two-minute silence of Armistice Day was moved to the nearest Sunday to 11th November, so that it would not conflict with wartime production. This tradition continued after World War II – Remembrance Sunday is still marked with a national service, and by special services in most churches throughout the country and beyond. Americans mark Veterans Day instead.

A Remembrance Prayer For Children

We remember those who stood for love and truth, And thank you for the sacrifice they made for me and you.

Thank you that we can now enjoy peace and learn to love not fight,

Thank you that we can now sing and play, and not be scared or hide.

We pray for other countries where children live in fear,

And there is war and fighting and many are in tears.

Please help to make things better, and bring some peace to them.

Protect all those who try and help to make friends again.

Amen.

Fall Of The Berlin Wall, 30 Years Ago

The Berlin Wall fell 30 years ago this month, on 9th November 1989. East Germany reopened its border with West Germany, allowing its citizens to pass freely through the checkpoints. Workers began demolishing the 28-year-old wall the next day.

Earlier that year serious unrest in Eastern Bloc countries such as Poland and Hungary had put pressure on the East German government, which had also been dealing with demands from its own citizens, led by a determined 'swords into ploughshares' church movement for peace.

The wall was relatively low but heavily fortified, separating the democratic Western countries and the Communist countries of Eastern Europe throughout the Cold War. East German border guards were authorised to shoot anyone attempting to escape into West Berlin. More than 100 people died in that way, but hundreds more were killed trying to cross at other border points.

German reunification took place formally on 3rd October 1990.

One of the casualties of the building of the wall in 1961 was the Church of Reconciliation, which was separated from most of its parishioners and eventually demolished to make it easier for guards to shoot potential escapees. The same site now houses the clay-built Chapel of Reconciliation, consecrated in November 2000.

All You Need Is Love

Mother Teresa once observed: "We cannot do great deeds, but we can do small deeds with great love." That's something to remember in our daily life. What good are great public efforts if they are fuelled by personal ambition or a desire to rule? If you are not personally kind, what good does it do you? The Bible warns us that 'If I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, and have not love, I gain nothing.' (1 Corinthians 13:2,3) Who can you show some love to, today?

5th November, Guy Fawkes, An Early Terrorist!

Back in 1605 Guy Fawkes managed to stow a good few barrels of gunpowder under the House of Lords without anybody noticing. He was part of a Roman Catholic plot to murder James 1 of England and his parliament at the state opening. Fortunately, Guy Fawkes was found – and stopped – in time.

Maybe a little controversial at the time of writing!

30th November, Andrew – First Disciple Of Jesus

Andrew, whose feast day ends the Christian year on 30th November, is probably best known to us as the patron saint of Scotland, though his only connection with the country is that some of his bones were reputedly transported in the 8th century to Fife and preserved at a church in a place now named St Andrews.

In fact, there are so many legends about him all over Europe and the Middle East that it's safest to stick to what the Gospels tell us – though the strong tradition that he was martyred by crucifixion is probably true and is perpetuated in the 'St Andrew's Cross', the 'saltyre' of Scotland.

The Gospels record that he was one of the first disciples of Jesus, and the very first to bring someone else to Christ – his own brother. Like many fervent Jews at the time Andrew and an unnamed companion had been drawn to the desert, to be taught by the charismatic prophet known to us as John the Baptist. Many thought that he was the long-promised Messiah, but John insisted that he was not. 'I am the voice crying in the wilderness,' he told the crowds. 'Prepare the way of the Lord! One comes after me who is greater than I am.' So when one day John pointed out Jesus to Andrew and his friend and described him as the 'Lamb of God', the two young men assumed that the next stage of their spiritual search was about to unfold. So as Jesus made off, they followed him.

All the more strange, then (though, on reflection, very true to human nature) that when Jesus turned and asked them what they were 'seeking', all they could come up with was a lame enquiry about his current place of residence: 'where are you staying?' Or, perhaps, they were hinting that what they were seeking could not be dealt with in a brief conversation. If they could come to his lodgings, perhaps their burning questions might be answered. The reply of Jesus was the most straight-forward invitation anyone can receive: 'Come and see'. Come and see what I'm like, what I do, the sort of person I am. What an invitation!

The results of their response were in this case life-changing – for themselves, and for many other people. Andrew brought his brother, Peter, to Jesus. The next day Jesus met Philip and called him to 'follow'. Philip then brought Nathaniel. The little apostolic band who would carry the message of Jesus to the whole world was being formed. They came, they saw, they were conquered! And right at the front of the column, as it were, was Andrew, the first disciple of Jesus.

Regular Giving

A beautiful promise. Today more than 1.5 million impoverished children living in 18 countries around the world will wake up to the promise of a nutritious meal at school. And it is thanks to supporters like you that we are able to keep that promise!

Donating monthly is an important way to support Mary's Meals because the promise of these gifts allow us to plan for the future – meaning we can reach even more hungry children.

Christine, an 82-year-old retired primary school teacher, set up a monthly donation earlier this year. She says: "I love knowing that I am helping to feed children in classrooms all over the world from my home in Hertfordshire."

Her kindness helps us to feed children like 12-year-old Tarek. He is a Syrian refugee who, having escaped the conflict in his country, now lives in a settlement on the outskirts of Beirut in Lebanon.

Tarek loves school. He says, with a bright smile: "The food helps me concentrate and study more. It is important to come to school to learn and to get a good job."

By joining the supporters who make a monthly donation to Mary's Meals, you too can help us feed even more children living in the world's poorest communities.

From your home to Haiti, Liberia and India... your donation will travel around the world and bring hope to hungry children like Tarek.

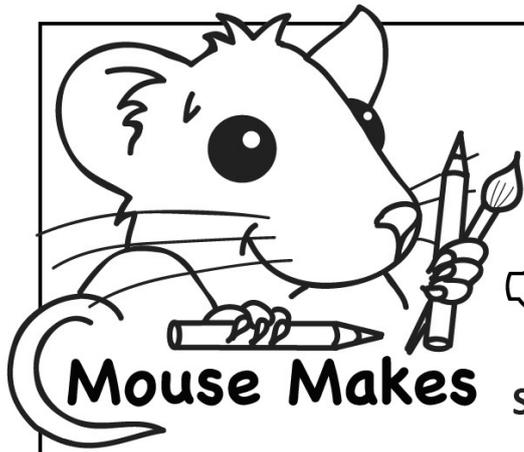

It costs just £13.90 to feed a hungry child for an entire school year. Each meal costs just 7p, so even small monthly donations make a difference.
